With his extraordinary powers of leadership and mature political sense, the Prophet began to refashion human beings by concentrating on their inner beings. He strove to awaken the sense of monotheism that was innate in them by drawing their attention to the mysteries of creation and acquainting them with the infiniteness of the universe.

The Seal of the Prophets and his message - The Point

The message God sent to the people via His prophet was that the people needed to return to God. Another message was God's impending judgment upon Judah. Even though this punishment would surely come, God also gave the encouraging promise of restoration in the future messianic Kingdom (Jeremiah 23:3-8).

Amos (prophet) - Wikipedia

Taken into the Lord's heavenly temple in a vision, the prophet saw the Creator seated on His throne. Isaiah's vision of the Lord captures the immensity and glory of Yahweh, for the prophet could describe only the train of His robe, not His face (v. 1). Seraphim—"fiery ones"—surrounded the divine throne, hovering and singing praises ...
